

Team:	What are the key assumptions you have identified? (List at least 3)
HEALD	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Changes in voice and movement are present in covert HE, and they are surrogate markers we can use to track progression of HE2) Combining the three stimuli would lead to more accurate tracking compared to single modality3) Patients with HE will adhere to frequent (e.g. daily) tasks performed on the smart phone for < 5 min4) We can make the daily/weekly assessment do-able for under < 5 min5) Patients have adherence issues right now if Stroop Test was available in the outpatient setting